

100 civil society representatives from Global Health Council (GHC) who will attend the 72nd World Health Assembly in Geneva, to advocate on global health issues to Member states & other stakeholders.

95 delegates from 39 GHC members will represent voices of global health communities

GENDER DIVERSITY

69% of our delegation are women in global health

21 women are leaders in their field from Presidents and Executive Directors of their organizations to Board chairs and members

COUNTRY REPRESENTATION

19 countries represented paving the way for conversations which foster health equity across the geographic spectrum

15 delegates represent the voices of global health communities in low- and middle-income countries (LMICs)